Letter of Endorsement:

Re: Anything Is Possible If You Think About It Hard Enough - written by Cordelia O'Neill and produced by Small Things Theatre

To whom it may concern,

The team at Petals is very pleased to support this sensitive and thoughtful play about stillbirth which will be performed at Southwark Playhouse March- April 2020.

We believe the play provides an interesting opportunity to raise awareness of the issues that surround stillbirth and the challenges this devastating outcome of pregnancy forces onto a healthy relationship. The stigma that surrounds baby loss means that couples very easily withdraw from their social networks at a time when they really need support. As a result, communication breaks down and networks easily become fractured between family, friends and colleagues.

We have read the play and discussed the messages it aims to communicate with Cordelia and Phillip. We feel confident the play will encourage the audience to consider their own experiences and feelings about the loss of a baby and help them gain a true insight into the experiences of bereaved parents.

Faithfully
